

ONE FLEW SOUTH TO JOIN ALL-STAR LINEUP AT FARM AID 2008

August 20, 2008 – Newcomers One Flew South have been added to the first-ever New England Farm Aid music festival at the Comcast Center in Mansfield, Mass. September 20th. The trio made up of Royal Reed, Chris Roberts, and Eddie Bush will join Farm Aid board members and legendary artists Willie Nelson, Neil Young, John Mellencamp, and Dave Matthews at the 23rd annual day long festival. One Flew South will perform their single “My Kind of Beautiful,” which is currently climbing the Country Charts and garnering Adds at major stations across the country.

“It is such an honor for us to perform at Farm Aid 2008 alongside artists who have changed the face of music and who we have all looked up to as musical icons in some way or another,” said Chris Roberts. “It is an unbelievable opportunity for us to get our music heard and to help out a great cause.”

One Flew South is currently on a radio tour across the country in support of their album Last of the Good Guys. The trio recently had their first national television appearance on the CBS Early Show where they performed their single “My Kind of Beautiful.” Since releasing their debut album the group has had write-ups in People Magazine’s Country Special issue, CMA CloseUp Magazine, Performing Songwriter, AOL: The Boot, and Country Weekly, all unanimously stating that One Flew South has what it takes to make a real impact on the Country music world.

Tickets for Farm Aid 2008 Presented by Whole Foods Market and Horizon Organic are available at all Ticketmaster outlets, ticketmaster.com, livenation.com or by calling (866) 448-7849. Tickets are priced at $35 for lawn, $55 for uncovered seats, $95 for covered seats and $200 for VIP plus a $7 parking and facility fee for all tickets.

Farm Aid's mission is to build a vibrant family farm-centered system of agriculture in America. Farm Aid artists and board members Willie Nelson, Neil Young, John Mellencamp and Dave Matthews host an annual concert to raise funds to support Farm Aid's work with family farmers and to inspire people to choose family-farmed food. Since 1985, Farm Aid has raised more than $30 million to support programs that help farmers thrive, expand the reach of the Good Food Movement, take action to change the dominant system of industrial agriculture and promote food from family farms.

For more information on One Flew South you can visit their website at www.oneflewsouth.com.