

Picks and Pans Main: Nine New Stars Worth Listening to

People.com

By ERICKA SÓUTER, LUCY HITZ

March 12, 2008

ONE FLEW SOUTH ¶¶

WHO THEY ARE: Former solo artists Chris Roberts, Royal Reed and Eddie Bush formed the group in 2005. ¶¶

DOWNLOAD: "My Kind of Beautiful," a song about meeting the woman of your dreams. ¶¶

WHAT THEY LOVE ABOUT THE SONG: "It's country, but it has a rocking side to it," says Bush, 32. "It has an edge." ¶¶

Josh Turner
Everything is Fine

Featuring "FIRECRACKER" and "ANOTHER TRY" (with Trisha Yearwood)
Available now at TARGET®
www.JoshTurner.com

ASHTON SHEPHERD
SOUNDS SO GOOD
the debut album

featuring the single and video "Takin' Off This Pain"
Available March 4th at TARGET®

GO TO PEOPLE.COM/COUNTRY DOWNLOADS

ONE FLEW SOUTH
WHO THEY ARE: Former solo artists Chris Roberts, Royal Reed and Eddie Bush formed the group in 2005.
DOWNLOAD: "My Kind of Beautiful," a song about meeting the woman of your dreams.
WHAT THEY LOVE ABOUT THE SONG: "It's country, but it has a rocking side to it," says Bush, 32. "It has an edge."

KATIE ARMIGER
WHO SHE IS: Last year the 16-year-old Sugarland, Texas, native scored a hit with "17 in Abilene."
DOWNLOAD: "Let Him Go," a ballad about not getting the guy.
HER INSPIRATION: "I wrote 'Let Him Go' after watching My Best Friend's Wedding on TV," says Armiger. "There've been guys I liked, but they liked my best friend. But that was in high school, so no one was getting married!"

MCA